

Furnace Operators – American Heat Treating, Inc.

Summary:

AHT is a growing company and have 1st, 2nd and 3rd shifts furnace operator positions available. We are looking for energetic, self-motivated, and reliable individuals to process scheduled customer work through the furnace line.

Essential Duties and Requirements:

- Ability to operate machinery after adequate training.
- Setup and load furnace according to work order and standard furnace operational instructions.
- Maintain all required documentation.
- Perform in process inspections as required.
- Monitor equipment for correct operation.
- Handle parts to preclude from mixing
- Setup parts in appropriate work fixtures
- Assist with final QC inspection of parts.
- Weekly cleaning and maintenance of equipment.
- Notify supervisor and/or quality in the event of defects or unacceptable product quality
- Repack, and move processed parts to designated staging area, strap and wrap as required.

Qualifications and Education:

- Manufacturing experience is preferred.
- High School Diploma or GED.
- Fork lift operation.
- Strong interpersonal skills, ability to work well with others.
- Must have an aptitude for working with their hands.
- Good attendance and work history a must.
- Must be legally eligible to work in USA and pass a pre-employment assessment test and drug screening.

Benefits:

Medical

Dental

401K

AHT Offers in Return

Supportive environment where every individual is respected.

Stable foundation on which to grow your career.

Promotion from within.

Fast-paced, quality-driven work provides challenges and opportunities for innovation.

Total rewards package, including attractive benefits, profit sharing, and tuition assistance program.

To apply, email resumes to: info@americanheattreating.com